

EMERGING HEALTHCARE LEADERS - ADVOCATE TRAINING PROGRAM SPRING 2023 RECAP

On May 21st 2023, June 3rd and 4th 2023, the California Black Women's Health Project hosted our third Emerging Healthcare Leaders Advocate Training Program (EHL-ATP). We provided 50 Black women in the healthcare and healing spaces with the tools, access and resources that they need to build capacity and address disparities in the healthcare space.

We are deeply grateful for all of our participants, sponsors and facilitators including but not limited to: Cedars Sinai, Crystal Stairs, California State University Dominguez Hills, Nakeisha Perkins-Robinson and Gwendolynne Cole of the Los Angeles County African American Infant and Maternal Mortality (AAIMM) Prevention Initiative, Dr. Jerry Abraham of Kedren Community Health Center, Misty Powell of Wholistic Healing Arts, Yolanda Whittington of Sistah Friends and facilitators Anissa Muhammad and Nicole Vick.

We are elated in our mission to provide a safe and supportive environment for Black women to gather. Not only have we facilitated their collaboration and connection through training programs, but we are also excited about the upcoming mobilization events and initiatives that will further enable them to come together, reconnect and engage with one another. We are so proud of our EHL-ATP class and look forward to them growing and thriving together wherever life may take them.
